

WORKFORCE SPARK

Summary

AspireHR Diamond is a rapid deployment including turnkey rules compliant with federal, state/provincial and local laws. It offers optimized requirements gathering with expert-led solution assessment for client specific processing for rapid deployment and quick ROI.

Available geographies

United States, Canada

Target industries

All

Employee size

Under 5,000

Implementation time

16-24 Weeks

Top benefits

Enable optimized labor allocation

Decrease workforce management process costs

Configure unique policies without custom coding

What's included

ADP WorkForce Suite products: Time & Attendance, Absence Management

Additional products: Business process maps, change management, training strategy guides, end-user quick reference guides, pre-written test scripts, automated testing dashboards and project management

Additional services: Up to one union, included configuration of HR Import and Payroll Export, list of standard format integrations for 3rd party systems and guidance for interconnectivity to other systems

Partnership overview

At AspireHR, we forge strategic partnerships with forward-thinking companies like WorkForce Software, an ADP company, to drive meaningful transformation in the HR landscape. This collaboration empowers us to tackle HR's most pressing challenges by delivering innovative, secure and scalable Human Capital Management (HCM) solutions. By combining our deep industry expertise with the ADP WorkForce Suite's cutting-edge technology, we ensure our clients are equipped with the tools they need to optimize workforce performance, enhance employee experience and stay ahead in a rapidly evolving digital world.